¹⁷ In Korea, all graduating middle school students are required to take entrance prior to entering high school. The examination serves a similar purpose as the SAT, testing the student's knowledge and thus, determining which high school the particular student should enter.

MISSION. 9 : Being the first one to arrive at school without anyone forcing you

(A relaxing morning is a great way to start the day).

TO BE HONEST,
MY GRADERS
AREN'T THE BEST IN THE WORLD, BUT...

I'M STRONG ENOUGH TO HANDLE MOST PHYSICAL TASKS

MOST IMPORTANTLY,
I'LL TRY MY BEST FOR
ALL OF US TO HAVE A WONDERFUL YEAR.
SO WE CAN LOOK BACK
ONE DAY AND SAY
OUR FRESHMAN YEAR
WAS THE BEST YEAR EVER.

The election was decided by THREE votes!

President,
Ji-Eun Joo.

Vice President,
Goo-Hi Kang.

I'M LOOKING FORWARD TO WORKING WITH YA.

 Electing presidents, vice-presidents, and numerous other positions (e.g. chairman of the decoration committee) of individual households is common within the Korean public school system. Its purpose is to help students become more responsible, and thus, students are responsible for maintaining tidy and attractive facilities.
